

Writer's Imagination

First Edition Poetry

The Common Sense Of Me

The songs of our lives,
are the rhythm to our souls.
—c.m.cox

This compilation is decades of poetry that I have written to define and heal from Epilepsy, Incest, and Ritual Abuse.

I find by sharing my poetry that I am not alone in this world of survival that we all must endure.

Second Edition Poetry

The hills of Southern Appalachian in West Virginia has created inspiration and motivation for residents and transients.

This state is the soul keeper of the silence
that many have survived,
thrived and enjoyed.

The geography of home will become captive to memories. The secrets of the heart become the fire we use to motivate us.
The silence of the thoughts that we don't share will wither away in solitude
if not spoken or shared.

I share my personal survival of West Virginia heritage through the art of poetry in this second edition.

Autobiography

As a child growing up in the safety of a beloved journal, it gave me the courage to fight against the wrongs in my troubled childhood. I was able to embrace the goodness in creativity that helped me to alleviate the reality of struggles that I faced daily.

I learned how to use words and writing as a form of therapy at the tender age of 9,
before I knew what therapy was.

It was through this art of writing that I have found a passion in my life that makes it an essential requirement of my daily happiness now as an adult.

I have learned that the gift of sharing my writings can and will help many.
I have used my many writings to educate, support,
guide and direct others in their life too.

I have held many occupations that have taken me
from the retail industry, the administrative responsibilities of secretarial duties to the complexities of manual labor in rebuilding a house and the political aspects of working for government agencies.

I have found no occupation that thrills me like the imagination flow of writing.
I choose to use this gift to give back to society.

Dreams should never be limited by
the opinions of others.
If we believe we can touch the stars,
we should seek out those who will touch the stars with us.

I want to share the stars.

My words has won awards.
My words have appeared in numerous publications.
I have received favorable reviews from readers.

I can not even promise a category to fit my writing
ramblings into.

COMING SOON...

My first FREE novel will be available for download only at: www.authorcynthiacox.com.

This FREE electronic novel describes rural living in West Virginia revealing the secrets of the mountains. It shines light of understanding and education on the taboos of Incest.

This first hand encounter of the silence of Incest is an issue that plaques many today propelling me to share my story for free.

I hope that it will provide comfort and support to those who have survived Incest as I have.

I want this story to reach every soul out there to know that they are not alone. It is education to everyone who cares to know the truth of Incest from the eyes of one survivor.

Ignorance spreads the disease of lies,
in those who fear the truth. -c.m.cox

FREE Writers Resources @ www.authorcynthiacox.com

Writers Resources has been created to assist other writers, authors and poets. I have spent many hours on the Internet finding out the trial and errors of applications, programs, and resources for my own talent growth.

I choose to share these resources with others who want to learn to grow their own writing craft.

We all have a story to tell when we are ready to share it with the world.

I wanted to provide these assets of education and support to others out there who also enjoy word dancing.
